MEN ARRESTED FOR EXERTING THEIR RIGHTS

The primary election Monday turned out just about as most persons expected and many a man came to the polls cast his vote feeling that he was helping to rectify things said about him when he voted to hold the primary under the law were entirely uncalculated for. Mr. Seiger has had many complaints in that he voted for the resolution when it was before the committee and that every thing passed off so smoothly Monday.

The day was wet and dreary until late in the afternoon when the sun cast forth its rays on what was considered the "limit" in the conduct of elections. Men were seen here and there in little groups discussing the action of V. B. Stevenson and Frank Jackson in causing the arrest of Messrs. J. S. Brown, D. B. McElwain and Edwin Dean for as they say in the affidavit disturbing an election. The rural populace soon waxed warm and all the pleasant things said about T. B. Andrew and Andrew Jackson, two of Boss Schmidt's adherents, could not be put in print.

That wherever you find Andrew Jackson or T. B. Andrew you find trouble always held good in the old south precinct and they certainly did themselves proud for the first time under the change of precincts. As the voters of the central committee as rotten as they are have always allowed a representative of a candidate in the polls. Mr. J. S. Brown, candidate against Mr. Jackson, set out to remain inside and see that every thing was on the square. Early in the morning he was notified by Mr. Jackson that he must go out, but this he refused to do. Mr. Ed Dean was with him at the time and then Mr. Stevenson as judge took it upon himself to escort Mr. Brown to the door. Some little scuffle was engaged in with Mr. Brown the while.

Mr. Dean was the next victim and both he and Mr. Stevenson gave a wrestling match before a very small crowd Jackson seeing that the men were in to stay invoked the aid of Officer Kennon, who upon entering notified Mr. Brown that he would have to go out. Mr. Brown asked the officer for his papers, but could not show any and he walked out leaving Frank Jackson, who always stood at a safe distance and did the urging to put them out, and Mr. Brown to settle the question. Mr. Brown soon settled the question with the younger Jackson by informing him that if he wanted him out he should attempt it himself. By this time Mr. Dean concluded they did not need him longer and he left for home leaving Mr. Brown to look after his own interests. However later in the afternoon Mr. McElwain came in to vote and stayed in the room as Mr. Brown's representative while he went out into the street for a time. On Mr. Brown's return he was arrested by Officer Grindle, the papers being made out before Mayor McFarland and Frank Jackson, charging him with disturbing an election. The same charge was placed against both Messrs. Dean and McElwain. The men were bound over under bonds of $300 signed by J. H. Wolford and D. Dean. This is how Mr. Jackson conducted open politics which he stated he would before the committee meeting. The matter will be fought in the courts to the last ditch.

CHARITY BALL

Elaborate preparations are being made by Xenia lodge, No. 665, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, for the fourth annual charity ball to be given by the lodge, Tuesday evening, April 25, in the armory. The Elks are bending all their energies to make this the crowning social event of the year, and the most elaborate social affair ever given in Xenia. It will be, as the charity balls of the Elks have always been, a representative gathering of the best people in this and neighboring counties.

Arrangements have been made with the famous Heidelberg orchestra, of Dayton, and the Sons of Veterans band of this city, to furnish the music for the occasion. Prof. Nate Heidelberg, will personally conduct his orchestra which will consist of ten pieces in the evening, and the Sons of Veterans band will also be reinforced by the addition of several pieces. The music, furnished by two musical organizations of such widely recognized merit, will attract to the affair many persons who do not care for dancing, and will not otherwise partake in the festivity of the evening. Lovers of high class music will find themselves amply repaid for attending the affair, by this delightful feature of the evening, alone.

The armory is better adapted this year, to the holding of the ball than the accommodations for the dancers, and also for those who will not take part in the dancing, will be much more ample and comfortable than in previous years.

While the Elks' lodge is in so large a measure a charitable organization, only once during the year, at the time of the charity ball, do its members call upon the general public for any aid in their many good works toward the poor. A large portion of the proceeds of this affair is given to charitable societies in the city for use among the worthy poor.

Tickets for the affair are now on sale, and can be obtained of any Elks. The tickets are $1 and will admit one man and two ladies.

PRIMARY INCIDENTS ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The primary is now over and to relate some of the things that were done by the "gang" or "organization" as they prefer to have themselves called it being a milder term. There are many things of interest that only shows just what will be done and that the things the "Boss" is charged with are true.

In one Xenia ward there were when the votes were counted nearly as many votes cast as in the regular election all from the fact that 71 Italians were in Xenia at that time. These men as far as is known are not naturalized and not even entitled to a vote in any state in the Union but they were voted the same even though the clerk could not understand their names. This is one of the reasons Mr. Voter that your committee, Mr. Jackson, and some others voted to turn down the resolution asking that the primary be held under the state law. The Italians that voted were brought into Xenia a few weeks ago by the railroad company to do some grading.

The "Square Deal" organization of Xenia circulated a letter, giving the list of anti-gang candidates for central committee and telling why voters should support them. To off set this another circular was issued from a printing press under the direction of the "gang" with Attorney Donahue of Xenia as secretary, the original giving name for this place. The two jobs typographically were as opposite as could be. The original was gotten out by a first-class Xenian concern while the latter is decidedly a one-horse affair.

The initiation circulars were sent out through the rural districts and but few of them in the villages. The gangsters thought that by doing the farmer was not next but fortunate to have received a copy of the original. They all felt next after what a paper had to say about the organization. The official organ was mailed the same day the circulars were a very singular coincidence.

The Record being the official organ for the Andrew Jackson-Jackson crowd under the direction of "Boss" Schmidt made a fair effort to give an interview in this instance with J. B. Fleming in that he has been offered $500 by the "Boss" as a bribe. It was the first intimation yet heard that the "Boss" had done such a thing and the Record is the only newspaper that has made such a statement. Boss Schmidt doesn't have to do such things for he has men for that purpose and it wouldn't be good politics in doing so. The interview didn't go far enough to ask Mr. Fleming if he had been offered any such amount and also who it might be. It is plain to be seen that the dangerous place had not been reached and that the "machine" mouthpiece fixed the interview to suit itself.

There was one man on the street Monday in the interests of Jackson that could manufacture the most plausible lie ever used for campaign purposes. When he approached a drinking man that he thought would not vote the right way he argued that the local option people were trying to defeat Jackson for his job in Columbus and that he should help hold him up by giving him the central committee ship. This man no doubt had in mind the fight the Anti-Saloon League gave Jackson last year and this would be eliminated at the next organization of the house if he was re-elected committee man.

WHAT WAS ACCOMPLISHED

The primary Monday was the result of a fight of the people of the county on the "Boss" and "Machine." The will of the public has been trampled upon until public sentiment has demanded a reform. The first place to make the change was in the central committee and here is where the fight was the warmest. The "machine" adherents content themselves by reporting that they elected 21 out of 20 of the committeemen but there is another side to this story. If the "machine" after such a fight has been made on them won, so many of the committeemen why hasn't there been more demonstration over the victory. It was not up to former years when there was no general fight being waged. The facts of the case are that the "machine" elected about 16 out of the 20. The public has no reason for discouragement and should look on what was done as a good start for another year. When it comes to arresting men to keep from having Roosevelt's idea of the "square deal" put into force then it is time for every body to take a hand and assist in righting the wrong.

Mr. Ralph Bull left Tuesday evening for the West where he expects to locate. He will first visit relatives in Indiana and stop a few days in Chicago with his cousin, Harry Bull, who has a position with the Marshall Fields Company. He expects then to go on to Salt Lake City where he will probably locate.

The display of Malleable Iron ranges given last week by C. M. Crouse resulted in an extra good sale considering the season of the year. The stove is said to be an extra good one and from the sale at Jamestown according to the salesman it is a good seller. He reports that there were twenty-six ranges sold there a few weeks ago. Mr. Crouse considered his sale of seven good for the time of year.

Mr. Elmer Spahr, of Clifton, son of Dr. D. E. Spahr, has rented the vacant room of C. W. Crouse and will open a first class candy store. He has installed a soda fountain and will serve the drink to those who wish to sit down in a decent place. He will have ice cream on hand at all times getting it from Grice, of Xenia. Mr. Spahr is thoroughly acquainted with all the work in operating such an establishment as he has been with Grice, of Xenia, for several years. Mr. Spahr should meet with a fair share of the patronage in his respective lines.

Mr. O. T. Wolford is no longer the owner of the fast racing mare, "Lizzie B," he having sold her on Wednesday to Mr. J. Fred Green, of Springfield, the head of the Bushnell syndicate of railroads. Mr. Wolford raised the animal himself and was very much attached to her and made the sale after considerable hesitation. Mr. Green is the owner of a stable of good horses and his trainer, Orlando Worthington having made the Wolford mare what she is, was very anxious to become her owner. A couple of years ago Mr. Wolford was offered $1,500 for her but he declined it. During the Collins sale Mr. Green stated that he had offered Mr. Wolford $1,200 but that he had declined it. The exact price is not known but it is placed over $1,500. Mr. Green says the mare is the best prospect in this section of the state and that he will have her marked about 2-28 this summer. Her present record is 2:16.

MUSICAL SNAILS.

Marvelous facts are given to us by the hardworking scientists. Many of the inconspicuous members of the lower orders have been brought to our respectful admiration by the naturalists. Now it is the slimy snail that commands our admiration. A German scientist points out that the snail can draw immense weights, and now a Frenchman claims that there are few, if any, animals which have a keener appreciation of music than snails. This naturalist is M. M. S. Jourdain, and he expresses his views on the subject in a paper which he has read to the French Biological society. Place some snails on a pane of glass, he says, and you will find that they will make sounds similar to those which a person can produce by wetting his fingers and rubbing them around a tumbler. Complete airs, he thinks, can be produced in this way. This may be the next vaudeville novelty.

Does the Senator Remember?

"Don't you remember the box of flowers in front of the cabin door when you were a boy? Don't you remember the violets growing there?" asked Senator Pettus in a recent speech. Do we, senator? Well, we guess yes. And, gee whiz, the sore toe, senator! Don't you remember it? And the sun peeled back from go'n' in swimmin' in the meadow dam, and the soreness just south of the back from the maternal palm when we brought the sore back home! Don't you remember it, senator? And the mumps and the measles and the stone bruise on the heel and the feeling of exultant pride which swept through our whole system after we had kicked the fellow who dared to knock a chip off our shoulder! Ah, senator, don't you wish we were boys again?—Denver Post.

Who switched the ballot box?

With taxes at $2.50, something must be done.

An examination of the corporation affairs will be the next thing in order.

Nothing like it was ever known in the county, and you farmers can vote but you don't know what is done with your ballot.

A new precedent has been established by the Grand Duke of High-Ballton. If you do not vote right you are subject to arrest.

Such a primary as Mr. Siegler gave the voters of the corporation certainly makes the Andrew-Hidgeway-Jackson bunch look like thirty cents.

The circulars gotten out by the "gang" putting Douglas' name as secretary of the organization working for a square deal did not have the Cretons imprint.

Is it any wonder that Andy voted against the passing of resolutions to hold the the primary under the state law. The incident on Monday goes to show what infernal scoundrels will do.

The time to switch the ballot box is at the proper time and the one Monday was changed on scheduled time. A good rule to follow is to make the arrest and then let the change follow immediately.

All praise to Mr. George Siegler as Committeeman for this corporation. There was no trouble in this precinct whatever, because Mr. Siegler invited 1 persons in to see that the primary was on the "square".

If there was a state law prohibiting men from holding public office until they paid their honest debts would't there be a bunch of them eliminated. Then suppose that such a law could effect, some that are already in office wouldn't there be a number of changes.

When a man would write such an article as appeared last week stating that so and so was offered so much money to do a certain thing and did not give the true facts in the case, he must have been dreaming after taking a drink out of the same bottle that the Grand Duke of High-Ballton uses.

"My polls will be open and any one can see what is going on," was the statement Jackson made before the central committee when the resolution was offered asking for some rules in the conduct of primaries. Andy certainly made his word good in making the arrest of Messrs. Brown, McElwain and Dean, through his son, Frank and W. B. Stevenson.

Mr. Brown is a game individual and the kind of a man that is needed in politics. He demonstrated on Monday that he was his own boss for the judges couldn't even put him out by force, and when an officer came to take him out he demanded to see the papers, which could not be done and Mr. Brown remained where he was. After his arrest he returned to the polls and took up where he left off but of course couldn't tell just how many ballot boxes had been switched on him.

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

We do not claim any of the credit of what took place Monday, we leave it all to our neighbors. It was their friends that did it, not ours.

Had all the precincts in the county been like the one in which Chee-ney Cretons was committeeman Fleming's name would even be erased from the ballot. Cretons made extra effort to see that Arnold got all that was coming to him, as it was dollars and cents to Cretons in a job as superintendent of the County Home.

The infirmity director fight came out as most hoped it would. The fact that Mr. Fleming was being opposed for his second term was enough to prove to most men that there was a game in the "gang" backing another man. Not a word of criticism has fallen upon Mr. Fleming, until within the past three weeks, and that from the Schmidt henchmen.

CONSTELLATION OF ARIES.

The Ram With the Golden Fleece of Argonautic Fame.

Early on the 21st of March the sun enters the sign of Aries, and astronomical spring begins. Two or three thousand years ago, when the heavenly groups were originally fashioned, Aries marked the vernal equinox, the passage of the sun through which betokens the opening of spring. Owing, however, to the slow westward movement of the equinoctial points Aries in reality has no longer the honor once accorded it, but has drifted to the eastward.

The constellation of Aries represents in mythology the ram with the golden fleece of argonautic fame, and a short sketch of its history may be of interest. Athasus, a legendary king of Thessaly, and two children, Phrixus and Helle, and he also had two wives, having repudiated the first and taken a second. The stepmother was not at all good to the children and treated them so badly that she aroused sympathy in their behalf. Among those interested in the youngsters was Mercury, who sent a ram, which took them on its back, sprang into the air and hustled them off to the eastward.

In those days Europe and Asia were separated by a strait, as we find in a measure to be the case today, and the girl Helle became frightened or perhaps dizzy from seasickness in crossing the water at this very rough time in her experience, lost her hold and fell into the straits which to this day are known as the Hellespont. The boy had a better hold and kept on until he reached the far end of the Black sea. Phrixus showed a spirit of sacrifice, not of self, however, by killing the ram and presenting its golden fleece to the king of the country, who caused it to be hung in the sacred grove of the Aries under the guard of a sleepless dragon. The star marking the forehead was called by the Arabs Hannal, which means sheep. In very early times it is said that the Greeks considered this star as the sunrise herald of the vernal equinox.—New York Times.

Condolence.

One of the hardest things in the world is to condole with anybody in a misfortune or a bereavement.

If it were not that the matter is generally serious a great many funny stories could be printed about the condolences people offer to the bereaved. But at Manchester some time ago a hardworking Irishman fell out of a fourth story window and broke his neck.

His wife was of course in great distress. After the funeral a neighbor called to offer her sympathy and condolence.

"It was a very bad thing indeed," "Indeed it was. To die like that—to fall out of a fourth story window."

"And was it so bad?" asked the visitor. "Sure, an' I heard it was only a third story window."

The Use of Metaphor.

A speaker who attempts to use nautical metaphors should be thoroughly familiar with the sea and the working of a ship or he will strand his speech. A clergyman was supplying a pulpit by the seaside. Thinking to impress the truth more distinctly upon the congregation, many of whom were seamen, he drew the figure of a ship trying to enter a harbor against a head wind.

Unfortunately for the success of his metaphor, he knew little of seamanship. After putting the ship into several singular positions he cried out in a voice intended to be emphatic:

"What shall we do next?" "Goodness only knows," exclaimed a disgusted old tar, "unless you let her drift stern foremost!"

CONDENSED STORIES.

Effect of Jacob Riis' Smile on a Crowd of Newsboys.

Some people have noticed the resemblance in mouths and teeth between Jacob Riis and President Roosevelt, says the New York Times. This resemblance once meant a great deal to 100 newsboys. They had been treated to one of their famous dinners, where juicy cat wheel mice pies were the star number of the menu.

Jacob Riis and the chief of police were standing at the back of the dining hall where the feast was served, watching the boys file in.

"I SAY, GULLY, ANTE UP DE PIES!"

As fast as they were seated the pies, of which there was one at each plate, began to disappear.

Riis had commented on the number of pies before the boys entered, and he now noticed that two-thirds of them were gone.

"Where are they?" he inquired of the chief.

"Put away in the blouses," was the answer, "and done so slick that no cop has ever been able to catch them at it."

Just then helpers, who evidently understood the situation, came around with more pies.

The boys began to take note of the visitors, and one at the head of the table said to his neighbor:

"Say, cully, there's Teddy Roosevelt up there grinning at us. Ante up de pies!"

And as if by magic Riis and the chief beheld fifty or more juvenile blouses open and give forth half a hundred pies.

INDIGESTION'S RECORD

"The best remedy I can prescribe for your indigestion, madam, is Green's August Flower. I know of several other physicians who prescribe it regularly."

Indigestion is making an awful record as a cause of sudden deaths. It is beating heart-failure in its ghastly harvest. If you read in the papers daily of apparently healthy and even robust men being suddenly attacked with acute indigestion after enjoying a hearty meal, and of their dying in many cases before a physician could be called in.

This should be a warning to you who suffer with regular or periodical attacks of indigestion. If these unfortunate victims of acute indigestion had taken a small dose of Green's August Flower before or after their meals they would not have fallen a prey to such sudden seizures. August Flower prevents indigestion by acting on the liver. It also regulates the liver, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system in a natural way.

Well Dressed Women Wear Wooltex Garments

THAT'S THE REASON THEY'RE WELL DRESSED

A Few Introductory Points Why You Should Select WOOLTEX

When you wear wooltex garments you have the satisfaction of knowing your clothes are right, unquestionable in style, and of real service and beauty. Every garment strongly appeals to every woman immediately she sees them, and whether the material be plain or of fancy pattern, they must be rich and elegant and of a quality that assures satisfactory wear. The linings, trimmings and all that enters into the garment is critically selected and must come up to the wooltex standard of excellence. Expert tailors, trained to this particular class of work, must also pass the wooltex examination. When you think of the wooltex guarantee proposition that the garment offered you must be entirely to your satisfaction before you pay for it, or if after purchase any defect is discovered, your money is duly returned or satisfaction made to suit you. This is exactly what the wooltex proposition with every garment is. The wooltex system of tailoring involves every modern device for cutting, spunging, sprinkling and pressing in use. We are the sole agents for this city appointed by the wooltex makers, and every suit, skirt or jacket sold by us is guaranteed in every detail.

To Induce Sleep.

When overtired and restless bathe
the neck and temples with hot water. Bathe the back of the neck particularly. This seems to relax the muscles and the veins that supply the brain with blood. A headache will often be relieved, even cured, by hot applications to the back of the neck.

Cooling Drink For the Sick.

To assuage thirst and appease feverishness apple tea is a capital drink for sick people. It is made by slicing raw apples into a jug, filling up the jug with boiling water, as in tea making, then sweetening to taste. When cold, this apple tea will be found pleasingly tart and refreshing.

Removing Old Paint.

When old paint is to be removed from the floors the following preparation is invaluable: Stir together two pounds of sal soda, half a pound of lime and one gallon of hot water.
Apply while still warm to the old paint. The mixture will loosen the paint so you can easily remove it.

To Test Mushrooms.

When cooking mushrooms, dry or fresh, drop in a silver piece—twenty-five or fifty cent piece—no difference as long as it is pure silver.
If it turns black, they are poisonous;
if the silver is bright, they are good.

To Remove Warts.

To remove a wart dampen it and rub with a piece of common soda.
Do this three or four times a day for a month and the wart will drop off, leaving no mark on the skin.

"My dear Mr. Taylor," said Mr.

"You have."

"My children have broken your your Monday washing and my dog and cats have disturbed your sleep of nights."

"Yes, that is true."

"We have emptied our ashes over into your yard, borrowed your hoe and rake, broken down your alley fence and tried in various other ways to be neighborly."

"Heaven knows you have!"

"And now, my dear sir, to show us that you appreciate the situation of affairs and have no ill feeling in the matter I want to ask a favor of you."

"Go ahead."

"I have four daughters, as you know, and all of them are now you kindly and as a neighbor come

Deep Diamond Mines.

Professor Henry Miers in lecturing to a London audience recently said that there was no knowledge of the depth to which the South African diamond mines could be worked. The deeper they go the richer they become. Work can be carried on now to a depth of 2,500 feet. It is thought that it might be continued to a depth of 5,000 or even 10,- 000 feet if the engineering difficulties could be overcome.

Ratskin Ear Muffs.

Japanese soldiers along the Sin-kai river have shown their ingenuity in the utilization of an oversupply of rats. The rodents became a pest, and the soldiers set to work to destroy them. Though destroyed, the rats were not wasted. The soldiers cured the ratskins and used them for ear flaps, with the tails tied beneath the wearers' chins.
